Dear handball friends,

The summer is over and the best European women's handball clubs are ready to return to the courts. Welcome to the EHF Champions League Women 2023/24!

Last season set new records in the premium club competition, with 20,022 fans rocking out the MVM Dome in Budapest for a superb EHF FINAL4 Women in June and setting a new record for attendance of a women's handball match. We can't wait for more history to be made in the competition's 31st season.

Vipers Kristiansand won the trophy for a third year in a row in 2022/23 and must surely be considered once again among the favourites. Drawn this year in group B, they will meet 2023 runners-up FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria, two-time EHF FINAL4 participants Team Esbjerg and 2022 bronze medalists Metz Handball, plus two-time winners Krim Mercator Ljubljana, EHF European League Women 2023 champions Ikast Handbold, CS Rapid Bucuresti, and debutants MKS Zagłębie Lubin in the group phase.

Record champions Györi Audi ETO KC are the team to watch in group A as they look to improve on last season's third place result. Györ face some experienced opponents, such as 2016 champions CSM Bucuresti, two-time winners WHC Buducnost BEMAX, SG BBM Bietigheim, Brest Bretagne Handball, Scandinavian powerhouses Odense Håndbold and IK Sävehof, and fellow Hungarians DVSC Schaeffler, as they set out for Budapest one more time.

That road begins on Saturday 9 September. As in the previous season, EHF Champions League Women matches will be played on Saturdays at 16:00 and 18:00 CE(S)T, and Sundays at 14:00 and 16:00 CE(S)T. Every point counts and the two best-ranked teams from each group will advance directly to the quarter-finals. The teams finishing between third and sixth will first proceed to the play-offs.

Enjoy the matches!

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
